

Cook - Relief

$21.15 per hour

Are you an experienced Cook looking for a job that makes a real difference in the lives of some of Ottawa's most disadvantaged women? Do you want to work in a workplace where you feel supported by your organization and have collegial working relationships? If so, please consider this position with us.

Cornerstone Housing for Women offers a wide range of residential services to assist homeless women seeking housing, healing, and new opportunities. Cornerstone has four thriving residential communities. The Relief Cook would prepare lunch and dinner for Cornerstone residents either at Booth Street for 20 seniors and up to 22 younger residents; or at The Women's Shelter for up to 62 residents. (Hours of operation 10:30/11:00 to 6:30/7:00 daily) Currently needed for Shelter Weekends and sick and vacation replacements.

Please apply if you:

- have a post- secondary diploma or certificate in food management;
- have good experience preparing food in a commercial, institutional or multi-residential environment;
- can prepare food for large groups while meeting diverse nutritional and specialized dietary needs;
- are committed to rigorous standards of cleanliness
- can work weekends and holidays, have a flexible weekday schedule and
- have a deep affinity for and aptitude to support a warm and non-judgmental environment for vulnerable women.

Please see the Cornerstone website at www.cornerstonewomen.ca for more information and the job description.

Applications should be sent by November 11, 2018 directly to:

jobapplications@cornerstonewomen.ca

Attn.: Janet McCullough, Human Resources Manager

Cornerstone is an Equal Opportunity Employer

We encourage people of diverse backgrounds to apply

Applicants who require accommodation for disabilities in order to participate in the recruitment should notify the HR Manager at the time of their submission.